West Palm Beach, on Florida's east coast, has undergone a remarkable regeneration in recent years.

As a result the downtown area is now a vibrant dining, entertainment and shopping district, which leads onto the now stunning West Palm Beach waterfront.

Within easy walking distance of downtown, the one time, run-down, historic neighborhoods' have been reclaimed and restored by passionately committed community associations.

Just over the bridge is the resort island of Palm Beach with bike trails taking you to pristine beaches, the mansions of the very rich and famous and the ultimate in exclusive shopping on Worth Avenue.

The MacArthur Beach State Park, on Singer Island, or a visit to the Everglades at Riverbend Park are short drives away.

Grandview Gardens

The Grandview Gardens Bed and Breakfast - Rick and Peter's place - epitomises the renaissance of West Palm Beach.

From a run down 1925 property in the Grandview Heights historic neighbourhood, the two have worked tirelessly to create accommodation that reflects the original Spanish Mediterranean architecture of the district.

The result is a welcoming B&B of genuine individuality, great style and character and intimacy.
